RONAN SOUSSA

*Ronan Soussa will appear as the event ambassador at the Sydney Disability Expo's opening ceremony on Friday, August 8th

Ronan is a young man who lives with Autism. He resides in Sydney with his parents, older brother and the two family cats.

His early years were filled with frustration and confusion however with the dedicated support of his parents, family and friends he now lives a happy and very busy fulfilled life.

Ronan proudly graduated from high school in 2017 and has now moved into the world of employment which he finds very rewarding.

He is passionate about promoting inclusiveness, advocating for people living with autism and spreading positivity. Ronan doesn't view his autism as a limitation but as a different way of experiencing the world around him.

He is a proud Ambassador for both the Autism Community Network and Bus Stop Films.

Ronan loves to experience new things and has many interests and hobbies, some of which are; a passion for motor racing including working at the race track, playing piano and tuba, drama, modelling, voiceover, karate in which he has achieved a black belt, and learning about film making. Just as importantly to him are the fun times he spends with the friends he has made through social support groups.

Four years ago Ronan dipped his toe into the world of dating, appearing on the Emmy Award winning Netflix show 'Love on the Spectrum' through which he has met someone who is now a special person in his life.
